EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (UWECBlugolds.com) - Burke Lendl from Rogers (Minn.) High School and Noah Shepherd from Minneapolis Washburn High School, will transfer from Bemidji State University to attend UW-Eau Claire and play basketball next fall, Blugold head coach Kyle Green has announced.

"We are very excited to have two quality student-athletes like Burke and Noah join the Blugold family. They come from very strong high school programs that have a tradition of success. Noah is a very good athlete who will give us a strong defensive presence and the ability to change the tempo of the game with his athleticism. Burke is a very versatile offensive player who can create defensive matchup problems for opponents with his inside-out scoring ability. Both young men have had proven success on the collegiate level which will allow for them to make an immediate impact in our program."
