WHITEWATER - The UW-Eau Claire women's soccer team fell 3-2 to UW-Whitewater in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opener held here today.

The game started with a flourish as three goals were scored in the opening nine minutes. The Blugolds scored first when Marcia Foltz (So.-Madison/Memorial) took a pass from Kacie Fry (Sr.-De Pere/Notre Dame Academy) five minutes into the game.

The Warhawks fired back three minutes later to even the score at one a piece. Eau Claire regained the lead at 9:00 when Maleia Damato (Sr.-Cedarburg) scored unassisted to put the Blugolds up 2-1.

After the opening wave of goals the game slowed down until the second half. Whitewater put Eau Claire away thanks to two goals from Christin Acklam at the 51:00 and 57:30 marks of the second half to give the Warhawks the 3-2 lead they wouldn't relinquish.
