

Men's Cross Country To Host UW-Stout Dual Friday

Posted: Wednesday, October 19, 2005

LAKE WISSOTA - The UW-Eau Claire men's team will host the UW-Sout Dual at Lake Wissota this Friday. The event begins at 4:00 p.m.

The men go head on against Stout. The Blugolds are 31-37 overall while the Blue Devils are 22-11 this year. The men's team seems to like running at home, as its best performance is the sixth place finish out of 15 at the Blugold Open on September 30th. They have also ended 9th of 12, 8th of 22, and 18th of 23.

Kevin Hall (Fr.-Green Bay/Preble), Nate Hall (Sr.-Green Bay/Preble), Adam Wolfe (So.-Marshfield) and Brent Kann (Fr.-Rice Lake) have all led the Blugolds this year. Wolfe finished in 19th at the Blugold Open with a 27:06 time. Kevin Hall took 32nd at Luther College. Brother Nate Hall took 43rd the next meet, the Midwest Collegiate Championship. Kann took 106th in Eau Claire's latest meet at the Jim Drews Invite.

The event begins at 4:00 p.m. at Lake Wissota this Friday as the men battle Stout and the women face Stout and La Crosse.

- PH -